Residential Real Estate Law

The buying and selling of a home is one of the most important transactions that a person will enter into in their life. That means it is important to find a lawyer that can deal with your real estate transaction competently and efficiently.

Buying a home is a wonderful accomplishment for anyone. As much as we hope the process goes smoothly, at times there are complications. Thus, it is very important to have a lawyer who has extensive experience in dealing with any curveballs that may come your way.

A year after receiving her call to the Ontario Bar in 1992, Jacquie Knowles began working primarily as a real estate lawyer. Since then, Jacquie has flourished in this space and established herself as a highly touted real estate lawyer. Together with a trusted, communicative team of JMK Law clerks since the early 2000s, Jacquie has successfully closed thousands of real estate transactions.

Comments Jacquie: "There are many moving parts in closing a real estate transaction and attention to all of the details involved is important. That is why choosing a team with extensive real estate experience matters; we know what issues are likely to arise and we anticipate them in advance. This makes the closing of your real estate transaction as seamless as possible."

While no two residential real estate deals are exactly alike, Jacquie and her team understands how significant these transactions are for their clients. As a result, they strive to make sure everyone involved appreciates the importance of getting the job done right.
